

Conversation

Cards

Starting conversation and connecting with new people can be challenging. These conversation cards can be used in one-one chats or group conversations to share interests and learn more about one another.

What has been the highlight of your week so far?

Are there any Netflix/ television series you'd recommend?

What's your favourite part about living here?

What's something small that made you smile recently?

Conversation

Cards

Starting conversation and connecting with new people can be challenging. These conversation cards can be used in one-one chats or group conversations to share interests and learn more about one another.

What's a food you could eat every day?

If you could add one thing to this community, what would it be?

What's a tradition
(big or small) you enjoy?

What's a movie you can quote without thinking?

Conversation

Cards

Starting conversation and connecting with new people can be challenging. These conversation cards can be used in one-one chats or group conversations to share interests and learn more about one another.

What's a topic you could happily listen to someone talk about for hours?

What's a skill you think would be fun to try?

Is there a place you'd love to explore one day?

What's something you could happily learn more about?

Conversation

Cards

Starting conversation and connecting with new people can be challenging. These conversation cards can be used in one-one chats or group conversations to share interests and learn more about one another.

How do you like to unwind after a long day?

What's your favourite season and why?

What's something you appreciate about meeting new people?

If you could have a super power what would it be?

Conversation

Cards

Starting conversation and connecting with new people can be challenging. These conversation cards can be used in one-one chats or group conversations to share interests and learn more about one another.

What's something you've discovered recently (a place, a tip, a product)?

Do you have a favourite sport?

If you could bring back one trend from the past, what would it be?

If you could have any animal as a companion, which would you pick?